5 Ingle Glen

Dibden Purlieu, Southampton

This well-presented end of terrace house benefits from its own garage and parking area, located directly to the rear, offering a superb opportunity for buyers seeking a comfortable and versatile home set in a convenient location.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by an entrance hall, which leads to the first floor, and opens onto a lounge that seamlessly flows into the kitchen/dining area, ideal for entertaining. The open-plan kitchen and dining room is a real highlight, featuring a large built-in utility cupboard while offering plenty of space for cooking and day-to-day living. There are a wide variety of units, space for appliances and a breakfast bar. A modern combi-boiler is located here. Upstairs, you will find two generous double bedrooms, both well proportioned, alongside a third single bedroom that could provide an excellent office or nursery (perfect for those working from home or with a growing family). There is also a well-appointed bathroom. Neutral décor throughout creates a welcoming atmosphere, making it easy for new owners to move in and add their own personal touches at a later date.
