THE PROPERTY

This well-presented two-bedroom ground floor apartment offers a bright and airy living environment and has been well maintained throughout. A particular feature of the property is the charming lounge, providing a distinctive and attractive living space.

What tenants say about living at Kingsley Court.

"We love Kingsley Court, it is a great place to live. You can either socialise in the lounge with friendly residents or stay in your flat. We have a film night, a music night and an art group. There is a great restaurant serving good value lunches every day. There are friendly managers on site 24/7 which adds to your security and provides support. The town centre is very close, within walking distance, and it has a good bus service to surrounding areas."

Ideally positioned with convenient access to the M3 and A3, the apartment is also within easy reach of the mainline railway station, providing direct services to London Waterloo in under an hour. The town offers a wide selection of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities, and green spaces, making this an outstanding opportunity for comfortable, secure, and convenient living.
