INTERNAL

The property is entered via an entrance porch leading into the characterful sitting room, featuring exposed oak beams, traditional mullion windows, outstanding views across the Calder Valley and a feature open fireplace.

A step leads down to the impressive living dining kitchen, where the original York stone flagged floor, exposed oak beams and window seat perfectly complement the property's heritage. Fitted with an attractive range of units, coordinating work surfaces with one-and-a-half bowl sink, a central island, and integrated appliances including a dishwasher, fridge freezer, Bosch double oven, and a five-ring gas hob with extractor canopy over. A multi-fuel stove enhances the space, while an external stable door provides access to the side of the property.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, with bedroom 1 enjoying exposed beams, mullion windows, a walk-in wardrobe and a stylish en-suite shower room with electric underfloor heating. The remaining bedrooms are served by a four-piece family bathroom comprising bath, separate shower, WC and wash basin.

Dating back to circa 1610, this Grade II Listed home is full of charm and character throughout, while also benefiting the modern convenience of gas central heating and double glazing.

EXTERNAL

The property is approached via a driveway providing ample off-road parking. A substantial garage and storage building benefits from power and lighting, with planning permission granted for partial conversion to create additional accommodation incorporating a bedroom with shower room. Planning permission has also been granted to extend the front porch to add a ground floor cloakroom/WC.

The enclosed lawned gardens and stone flagged patio enjoy outstanding far-reaching views across the Calder Valley. The adjoining paddock extends to approximately three quarters of an acre, making it ideal for equestrian or smallholding use.

LOCATION

Occupying a delightful rural setting in the highly desirable hamlet of High Lee, the property enjoys the perfect balance of countryside living while remaining conveniently placed for the amenities of Sowerby Bridge, Halifax and Hebden Bridge, which offer an excellent selection of shops, restaurants, schools and leisure facilities, while the nearby and welcoming Luddendenfoot Cricket Club provides a popular social focal point for the local community.

There are mainline railway stations in both Sowerby Bridge and Mytholmroyd, and the M62 is within 20 minutes' drive, allowing speedy access to the motorway network.

SERVICES

Mains water, gas and electricity. Gas combination boiler. Shared septic tank within the grounds.

TENURE Freehold.

DIRECTIONS

From Ripponden proceed along Halifax Road towards Sowerby Bridge. On entering the town, just before the railway bridge, turn left onto Sowerby New Road and continue uphill. At the Church Stile Inn turn right onto Pinfold Lane. Continue for approx. 1.5 miles as the road becomes Acre Lane and then Sowerby Lane. After passing Luddendenfoot Cricket Club on the left, take the next lane on the right. No.4 High Lee occupies the upper right-hand corner of the courtyard.
