Plymouth
Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-southwest of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.
The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the Southwest, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.
There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.
Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

North Prospect
North Prospect is a modern estate characterized by a large-scale regeneration of the old housing stock, replacing them with contemporary and energy efficient homes. Still undergoing regeneration, the area now benefits from a community hub named Beacon Community Hub, which includes a shop, library (which is run by Plymouth City Council), North Prospect's Sure Start nursery, office space and flats. It also hosts North Prospect Community Choir which launched in November 2016. The hub was completed and opened in early 2014. The overall redevelopment scheme has provided local residents with affordable private homes which buyers were able to take advantage of the government's Help to Buy scheme. A number of the new homes were also made available to Plymouth Community Homes tenants. The scheme and design has been selected for numerous awards including the RICS 'Regeneration project of The Year (South West & Wales) Award 2013'. The are benefits from being very central and provides easy access to schools, amenities and transport links, making it an ideal place to raise a family.

More Property Information
The property also boasts off-road parking and a lovely garden, situated in a peaceful cul-de-sac location. This adds to the appeal, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a tranquil living environment while still being close to local amenities, shops, and access routes.
