Location

Great Cressingham is a quiet, rural village situated approximately 15 miles from Dereham, 5 miles from Watton and 6 miles south of the bustling market town of Swaffham.

The village itself features a medieval church, an extensive village green with a children's play area, The Village Hall and The Hive both of which offer community events. There is also a former Victorian schoolhouse, originally built in 1840, which has been carefully restored to reflect its appearance in Victorian times. It is occasionally visited by school parties, providing a glimpse into what education was like in that era. The popular village pub, The Olde Windmill, offers meals and accommodation with a warm welcome. The surrounding countryside is particularly attractive, offering excellent opportunities for walking and observing local wildlife.

Swaffham lies approximately 30 miles from the cathedral city of Norwich, 16 miles from King's Lynn, and around 17 miles from both Sandringham and Thetford Forest, while the coastal town of Hunstanton is just 28 miles away. The Norfolk Broads can also be reached in around an hour.

The town provides ample free parking and benefits from a regular bus service. Amenities include a small social history museum, a wide selection of public houses, restaurants and cafés, as well as supermarkets such as Waitrose, Tesco and Asda, alongside a variety of independent shops. Swaffham offers schooling for all ages, together with sports and leisure facilities, and a popular golf club on the outskirts of the town. A traditional market is held every Saturday, featuring stalls selling fresh fish and meat, fruit and vegetables, cheeses, eggs, bread
