LOCATION

Nestled in the serene countryside of Leicestershire, Ravenstone is a hidden gem that perfectly captures the essence of rural England. Located just 5 miles northeast of Ashby-de-la-Zouch and about 15 miles southwest of the vibrant city centre of Leicester, this quaint village offers a unique escape into nature, history, and community spirit.

Surrounded by rolling hills and lush farmland, it is an idyllic spot for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. The scenic landscape provides the perfect backdrop for walking and cycling, with numerous trails winding through the countryside. Whether you're looking for a peaceful stroll or an invigorating bike ride, the beauty of the area invites you to explore its many paths. The surrounding countryside is also dotted with local parks and nature reserves, offering ample opportunities for picnics, bird watching, exploring and more.

While Ravenstone is a small village it still offers amenities such as a village shop and post office, but residents are not far from larger towns like Ashby-de-la-Zouch and Coalville, where a large variety of shops, cafes, and amenities can be found. This proximity allows residents to enjoy the tranquillity of village life while still having access to everything they need for daily living. It's a perfect balance that many find appealing.
