Property Details

Occupying the ground floor of an attractive Edwardian building, this beautifully presented two-bedroom maisonette benefits from its own private entrance and a secluded rear garden. Exposed floorboards run throughout much of the home, while the generous bay-fronted reception room features a charming wood-burning stove, bespoke shelving and plantation shutters. To the rear, a stylish dual-aspect dine-in kitchen offers contemporary white gloss cabinetry, solid wood worktops, integrated appliances and direct access to the garden, creating an ideal space for entertaining.
