6 Bridge Street, Ipplepen, Newton Abbot, TQ12 5SE

Situated within the ever-popular village of Ipplepen, this two-bedroom mid-terraced period cottage is brimming with character and offers the opportunity to enjoy village living on a budget.

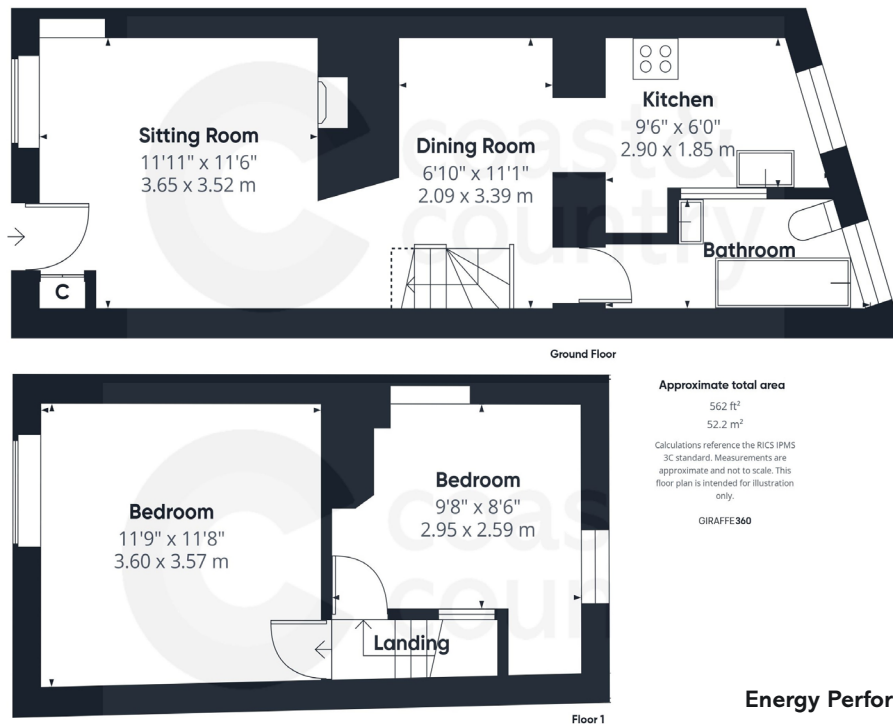

The village of Ipplepen is located around four miles from the market town of Newton Abbot and around five miles from the historic town of Totnes, set on the banks of the River Dart and famous for its bohemian atmosphere. Both of these towns have main line railway stations and excellent schools, leisure, shopping, and business facilities. The village offers a vibrant and active lifestyle opportunity with many clubs and societies. Within easy reach of the property is a small supermarket, popular inn/restaurant, health centre, primary school, church and tennis courts.

Accommodation:

The living space is divided into sitting and dining areas by an impressive stone hearth and chimney breast, with kitchen and bathroom at the rear of the ground floor, and a staircase leading from the dining area to the first floor. The main bedroom is a double which overlooks the street and features a small window seat. The second bedroom is smaller, features an alcove with shelving and a deep-silled window, through which access can be gained to a decked roof terrace area and skylight to the kitchen. Many character features run throughout the property, such as exposed beams and wooden floors, with in-keeping touches such as a roll-top bath and Belfast sink.

Directions:

From Newton Abbot take the A381 Totnes Road towards Ipplepen. After around 4 miles take the main turning on the right into Ipplepen. Follow the road towards the village centre and the property can be found on the left.
