Location

This lovely home combines a rural lifestyle with flexible living and is situated in the village location of Edington which is conveniently located for access to the nearby A39 and the M5 motorway junction 23, within five miles distance. The village offers local amenities including, Village Hall, Doctors surgery and Post Office/CO-OP shop at Gwilliams Store. There is an excellent primary school in the neighbouring village of Catcott along with two further pubs. The location lends itself to a range of primary and secondary educational facilities, with buses to the highly regarded independent schools in Taunton, Wellington and Street, (Millfield). The undeveloped countryside of the Polden Hills with many quiet lanes, footpaths and bridleways, including drove ways providing riding possibilities, as well as dog walking and cycling.

Directions

Description

Hill View presents an exceptionally rare opportunity to acquire a substantial detached family residence together with an established detached holiday cottage, extensive garaging, detached studio and beautifully landscaped surrounding gardens, all brought together within a remarkably versatile package extending to a footprint in excess of 4,500 square feet of usable internal floorspace. This affords an outstanding combination of lifestyle, flexibility and income potential and this is a property capable of satisfying a wide range of requirements, whether for those seeking multi-generational living, a home business environment, extensive storage and workspace or just simply the opportunity to inherit an already established and successful holiday letting business. Opportunities capable of delivering so many possibilities within a single property are incredibly difficult to find and Hill View must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Accommodation

Stepping into the principal residence, a welcoming entrance hall immediately creates a wonderful first impression, featuring an original Victorian tiled floor and staircase rising to the first floor. Attractive oak internal doors, a feature carried throughout all of the ground floor accommodation, open into the principal living spaces where traditional character and modern practicality combine effortlessly. At the heart of the home lies a magnificent farmhouse kitchen, thoughtfully designed and fitted by John Franklin Kitchens with an extensive range of bespoke painted cabinetry providing generous storage and complemented by striking black granite worktops. The room enjoys ample proportions to comfortably accommodate a large family dining table at its centre, creating a superb sociable environment for everyday family life and entertaining alike. An oil fired AGA with companion module incorporating additional ovens and electric hob will undoubtedly appeal to keen cooks, whilst a walk-in pantry and adjoining utility room further enhance practicality. Beyond this are a useful ground floor shower room and rear boot room with fitted storage providing an ideal space for coats, footwear and everyday family living.

The reception accommodation has been arranged with versatility in mind and offers generous proportions throughout. An L-shaped sitting and dining room centres around a feature wood-burning stove with attractive red brick surround and enjoys excellent natural light through bay windows overlooking the front garden. Oak flooring continues through into a dedicated study/bedroom 5, providing an ideal work-from-home environment, quiet retreat or bedroom 5, before leading into a particularly impressive garden room. This beautiful space enjoys a triple aspect across the grounds with exposed stonework, vaulted ceiling and Velux rooflights creating a wonderfully light and relaxing atmosphere throughout the seasons.

To the first floor, a spacious landing enjoys pleasant views towards the Polden Hills and provides access to four well-proportioned double bedrooms. Two benefit from attractively appointed en-suite shower rooms and fitted furniture, whilst a further bedroom enjoys built-in wardrobes and feature fireplace. Completing the principal accommodation is a beautifully appointed family bathroom fitted with a white suite incorporating a panelled bath with shower over and useful airing cupboard.

The Hide

One of Hill View's most remarkable features however is undoubtedly "The Hide", a beautifully presented detached holiday cottage which offers an already established and highly attractive income opportunity for its future owners. It has potential to generate income of circa £30,000 per annum and provides buyers with the opportunity to inherit a successful and proven business from day one. Equally however, the flexibility of this accommodation creates an excellent solution for multi-generational living arrangements, dependent relatives, independent guest accommodation or family members seeking their own private space.

Positioned discreetly within the grounds and enjoying excellent privacy together with its own parking and generous garden, "The Hide" offers beautifully presented accommodation benefiting from underfloor heating throughout. Internally, a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living space features exposed beams, vaulted ceilings and a wood-burning stove creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The attractively fitted kitchen incorporates integrated appliances and granite worktops whilst the generous bedroom enjoys French doors opening directly onto the private garden and is complemented by a stylish fully tiled shower room. A separate building houses the utility room with sink and appliance space further enhances practicality.

Outside

Hill View continues to impress from the moment of arrival. Approached through electrically operated wrought iron gates, a sweeping gravel driveway divides and serves both the principal residence and separate accommodation, creating extensive parking and excellent accessibility throughout the grounds. The detached quadruple garage presents exceptional versatility with significantly greater than average ceiling and door heights, making it ideal for workshop use, business storage, vehicle enthusiasts or a variety of hobbies and interests. Positioned behind the garage sits a substantial four-car carport complete with power, lighting and water.
