The owners have put their heart, soul and experience into creating their dream family home here – and what a home it is! As you explore, you'll see that the attention to detail here is unparalleled, the sense of quality shines through, but above everything else, this is a comfortable and welcoming family abode and a place anyone would be proud to call home.

A Total Transformation

This property has been completely transformed by the current owners, from the roof down, as well as being extended, so it's effectively a new property but on a lovely mature plot in a desirable setting. The owners came here looking for more space for their growing family and it's been a very happy home to them, albeit with a lot of work required to make it what you see today! Experienced in property, they have put their skills to excellent use here and it's a home that gets the balance just right, with style and function, comfort and quality throughout. All the work has been done to a high standard, with Karndean flooring on the ground floor, underfloor heating through much of the property, Porcelanosa tiling, bespoke wooden window shutters, a fabulous bespoke rooflight, solar panels and more.

KEY FEATURES

A Very Happy Home

One of the lovely things about this home is the way it blends open plan areas with more intimate rooms, so you have a wonderful family kitchen with two walls of bifold doors, a woodburner, room for seating and dining and a fabulous entertaining space, but you can escape to the snug if you want some peace and quiet. Both the main sitting room and the kitchen family room are wonderfully light and bright and both are incredibly spacious and have a good connection to the outside space. It's easy to see why the owners find themselves hosting many family gatherings – they have the space for a good number of guests and it works well for children of all ages, from tots to teens. There's a charming garden room where you can sit and soak up the sunshine, a utility room and cloakroom, a study with its own external access so you can see clients at home without them coming into your private space, and more. Even the reception hall is sure to impress! The principal bedroom has a very stylish bathroom with feature free-standing bath and walk-in shower, plus a dressing area, and all three of the other bedrooms are doubles, each with its own en-suite. There's more to see outside, with a seriously impressive gym complete with sauna and shower room, plus a further garden studio that would make a great office, hobby space or den.

Secluded Yet Convenient

The garden has been as well considered as the house and has a lot to offer. With a high wall at the front and electric gates, the whole plot is securely enclosed, so it's ideal if you have dogs or younger children. Close the gates and you really feel as though you're in your own little world. The house is set well back from the road so both the front and back gardens are very usable and you can follow the sun throughout the day. The pergola allows for al fresco dining sheltered from any wind and offering shade on hot days, while the large paved area is great for sunbathing and summer barbecues. There's a good size lawn where children can play while you watch from the comfort of your lounge. Head into the village and you'll find that Taverham and neighbouring Drayton have a wide range of amenities to offer. There are schools, shops including a supermarket, GP surgery, leisure facilities, pubs and more, all walking distance from the house. Head out for country walks on the Marriott's Way or jump in the car and go sailing on the Broads. You're within easy reach of the coast, and the vibrant and historic city of Norwich is only six miles from your front door.
