Full Description

Located within the well-loved Corfe estate, Tyneham Close is a cul-de-sac of just nine properties - with this home tucked conveniently in the far corner, offering a unique sense of seclusion and privacy. The corner plot allows for a vast frontage with parking for at least three cars as well as a large shed and additional garden.

Stepping down to the front door, the initial left offers the living room - an excellently proportioned

A lovely three bedroom home boasting open plan living accommodation alongside additional brick-built conservatory, separate utility and study, adding to the vast downstairs accommodation. The home enjoys a contemporary bathroom upstairs and built-in storage with every bedroom.

space with ample proportions for furnishings. An opening seamlessly blends the living room into the kitchen/diner allowing for a subtly separated ground floor accommodation whilst also enjoying the benefits of open plan living. The dining area retains space for a dining table and chairs with the contemporary kitchen adjacent featuring oven, sink and integrated fridge units as well as a range of base level units and preparation space in abundance via the breakfast bar. Both the kitchen and dining area retain rear doors, both of which lead to a large brick-based conservatory - perfect for enjoying the garden's westerly aspect whilst offering helpful additional floorspace.

The remainder of the downstairs accommodation is occupied by two versatile rooms adjacent to the home's side access. Currently hosting washing machine and an extra fridge freezer alongside further storage, the rooms could be used as an out and out utility, separate study/hobby room or simply further storage, providing convenient flexibility to the ground floor.

Rising to the first floor, the first accessible room is a stylish modern bathroom finished in sleek white tiling and hosting bath, toilet and basin. Adjacent is bedroom two, a small double room with viewers over the garden and rear green space whilst also enjoying an integrated wardrobe with sliding doors. Bedroom One is towards the front of the home, a large double room with wall to wall wardrobe, too whilst Bedroom Three offers a smaller single room or study with storage over the stairs.

The rear garden enjoys a sense of total seclusion with green space directly behind and westerly aspect perfect for enjoying the afternoon/evening sun. An initial decking area leads to a lawned space with ample room for sitting out and enjoying the garden; An additional patio area to the side leads to the home's side access.
