Positioned beautifully overlooking a picturesque greensward within this highly sought-after modern development is this improved, well-presented and exceptionally well-maintained home. One of the property's most appealing features is its desirable and peaceful setting, while still being only a short walk from the centre of Burnham and a wide range of local amenities including schools, doctors' surgery, post office, pubs, shops and restaurants—along with tranquil riverside walks along the banks of the River Crouch. Ideal as a first-time purchase, the home offers light, airy and spacious accommodation throughout. The ground floor begins with an inviting entrance hall providing access to a cloakroom and a generous living room, which in turn opens into an impressive kitchen/diner stretching across the rear of the property. Upstairs, a spacious landing serves a family bathroom and two double bedrooms, the principal of which enjoys views over the greensward and benefits from a stylish en-suite shower room. Externally, the property features a well-presented, low-maintenance rear garden complete with an impressive outbuilding, while allocated off-road parking is available at the rear. Viewing is highly recommended. Energy Rating: B.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
