Situated in a highly sought after Croftlands area of town, this detached bungalow offers nicely appointed accommodation with all the rooms accessed from the central hallway. There is a dual aspect lounge, two double bedrooms, a kitchen with ample space for a small table and chairs and a modern wet room. The property also features an attached garage, laundry room, gas-fired central heating system with a modern boiler, UPVC framed double glazing and garden to the front and rear including a gated driveway. General updating and modernising is required which will help personalise the home. No upper chain.
