PROPERTY SUMMARY

Constructed at the turn of the last century this stunning period home has been meticulously upgraded by the present owners during their tenure. Located within the heart of the town this incredible detached Victorian villa simply exudes charm & sophistication. With spacious & versatile family accommodation, a stylish & immaculately maintained interior boasting a plethora of original features, & substantial South facing gardens, this wonderful property offers a rare opportunity to obtain a character home of this calibre within central Strathaven.

The well-appointed layout of accommodation comprises; original double storm doors leading to entrance vestibule with pretty tiled floor, broad & welcoming reception hallway, beautiful formal lounge with feature bay window, ornate fireplace with working fire inset, ground floor double bedroom with 'Glasgow Press' cupboard, luxurious hotel worthy four-piece family bathroom with copper free standing bathtub, utility/boot room with fitted storage, tasteful shaker style kitchen with central island, Range cooker, Belfast sink, pantry cupboard, and side access. Open plan to the kitchen is a striking double height dining area & lounge with log burning stove, & Bifold doors opening onto sizeable porcelain tiled patio - this incredible space to the rear of the property is conducive to modern day family living, parties, & entertaining.
