Situated in the well-regarded residential area of The Shrubberies, in the sought-after Cornish fishing village of Porthleven, this two-bedroom end of terrace house offers well-proportioned accommodation with views over the village towards open countryside and distant glimpses of the sea. The property benefits from LPG central heating and double glazing and has the benefit of a parking space.

Externally, there are pleasant gardens extending to the side and rear of the property, including two useful sheds, one of which we understand has power connected.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an entrance hall, lounge, W.C., and a kitchen/diner on the ground floor. The first floor offers two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
