Queen Elizabeth Drive, Consett, DH8

Asking Price £330,000

Looking for a family home with room to grow, style to spare and storage in every room? This impressive, beautifully presented detached house on Queen Elizabeth Drive is the one.

Finished to a very high standard, the property has four bedrooms, two reception rooms, two bathrooms and a converted former garage, currently used as a large dining area. It's ready for you to move straight in.

Every bedroom has bespoke fitted storage. The master bedroom has fitted wardrobes, a fitted headboard and a matching bedframe with drawers on either side. The second bedroom has a bespoke storage unit and drawers, the third has fitted wardrobes, a headboard and a bedframe with drawers, and the fourth has fitted wardrobes with matching drawers.

The two reception rooms give you space to relax together or spread out, with room for a lounge, snug, playroom or study. Two bathrooms help with the morning rush.

The bespoke fitted kitchen is stylish and practical, with underfloor heating that continues into the utility room and hallway. It has a dishwasher, American-style fridge freezer, double oven, microwave and induction hob, and the utility room has a washing machine and tumble dryer.

The converted former garage gives the house a large extra dining area, ideal for family meals and entertaining.

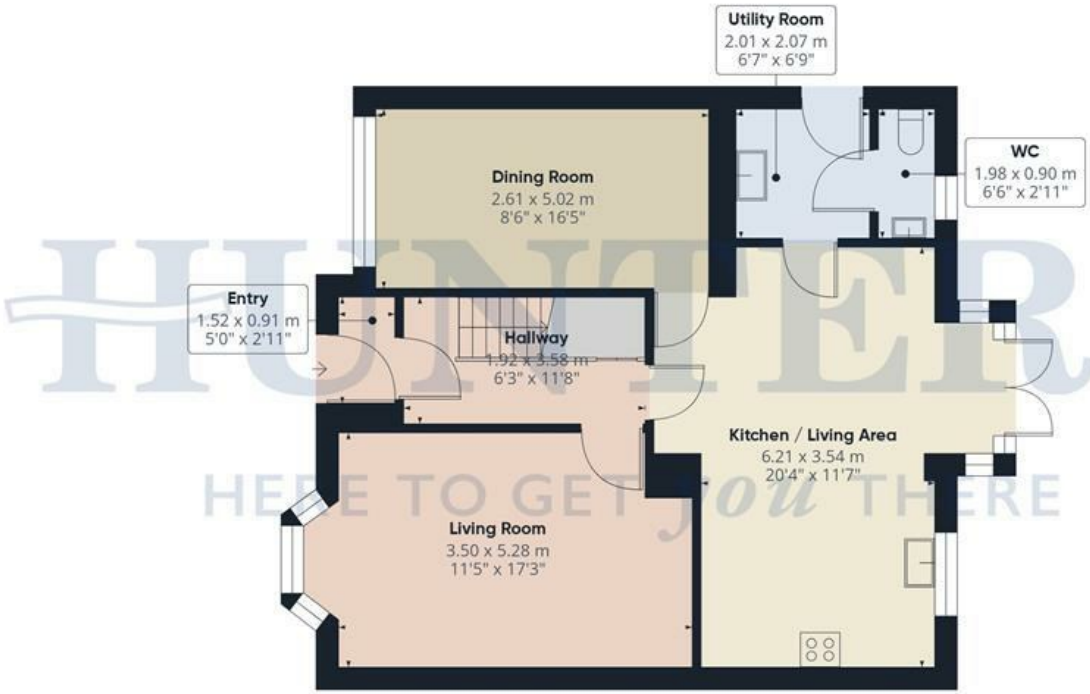

Outside, a block-paved driveway gives off-street parking and makes a smart first impression.

The house is in a popular part of Consett, close to schools, supermarkets, shops, cafés, parks and Derwent Walk Country Park, with bus links to Durham and Newcastle and road access to the A68.

Freehold. Council tax band E.

With bespoke furniture throughout, underfloor heating and versatile living space, homes like this don't come along often. Book your viewing early so you don't miss out.
