Description

Dickens Heath can be found approximately two miles from Shirley town centre and four miles from Solihull town centre. The former farmland has been developed over recent years by a number of house builders to provide a modern residential development centred around a central High street and village green.

Boundary Lane runs adjacent to the village green in the heart of the development. As a whole, the entire village benefits from the close proximity of open countryside and the canal, where canalside walks will take you through to Birmingham Centre and Earlswood Lakes. The village boasts its own junior and infant school, and secondary education can be found at nearby Solihull secondary schools, including Light Hall and Alderbrook. Education facilities are subject to confirmation from the local Education Department.

The main shopping centre of nearby Shirley offers a wide choice of supermarkets, convenience and speciality stores, restaurants and hostels, and there are frequent bus services along the A34 into Birmingham city centre and Solihull town centre boasting the vibrant and modern Touchwood Development offering shopping facilities and evening entertainment.

Shirley has its own train station in Haslucks Green Road, providing a service to Birmingham city centre and Stratford-upon-Avon, and also close to the village is Whitlocks End Railway Station which also provides a service to these destinations.

Off the main Stratford Road leads Marshall Lake Road boasting the Retail Park, and further down the A34 one will find the Cranmore, Widney, Monkspath and Solihull Business and leisure park, and onto the Blythe Valley Business Park, which can be found at the junction with the M42 motorway, providing access to the midland motorway network. A short drive down the M42 to junction 6 will find National Exhibition Centre and Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station.

This property was originally constructed by Redrow Homes to their 'Grantham' design and occupies a wider than normal corner plot overlooking the village green to the fore. The property has been considerably altered and improved by the current owners and has a superb open plan kitchen dining and family room refitted to a high standard with integrated appliances, quartz work surfaces, twin double opening doors leading to the landscaped rear garden. The living space is complimented by a pleasant first floor lounge and there are four well proportioned bedrooms, two en suite shower rooms and a modern family bathroom. There is a double garage and driveway to the rear. Houses presented to this calibre are rare to come to the market and early viewing is recommended to appreciate the space offered and the wonderful homely feel offered by this charming property.
