Description

Three Maypoles Wharf is an exclusive gated development originally constructed in the early 2000's by Laing Homes and enjoys a delightful position on the canal side accessed from Tythe Barn Lane which is located on the far side of the modern village of Dickens Heath. The whole development benefits from the close proximity of open countryside and the canal, where canal side walks will take you through to Birmingham Centre and Earlswood Lakes. The village boasts its own junior and infant school, and secondary education can be found at nearby Solihull secondary schools, including Light Hall and Alderbrook. Education facilities are subject to confirmation from the local Education Department.

The main shopping centre of nearby Shirley offers a wide choice of supermarkets, convenience and speciality stores, restaurants and hosteries, and there are frequent bus services along the A34 into Birmingham city centre and Solihull town centre boasting the vibrant and modern Touchwood Development offering shopping facilities and evening entertainment.

Shirley has its own train station in Haslucks Green Road, providing a service to Birmingham city centre and Stratford-upon-Avon, and also close to the village is Whitlocks End Railway Station which also provides a service to these destinations and has extensive parking areas for commuters.

Off the main Stratford Road leads Marshall Lake Road boasting the Retail Park, and further down the A34 one will find the Cranmore, Widney, Monkspath and Solihull Business and leisure park, and onto the Blythe Valley Business Park, which can be found at the junction with the M42 motorway, providing access to the midland motorway network. A short drive down the M42 to junction 6 will find National Exhibition Centre and Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station.

The residents of the building enjoy communal gardens that literally side the canal and this particular property enjoys a private aspect overlooking the canal which really needs to be seen to be appreciated.

Located in the rear building on the second floor and enjoying a pleasant aspect over the canal. The property has really high ceilings which aids to the overall feeling of space and really does need to be viewed to be appreciated and is being offered for sale on the basis of no upward chain and is exceptional value and priced for immediate sale.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS: Under anti-money laundering legislation, we are obliged to confirm the identity of individuals and companies and the beneficial owners of organisations and trusts before accepting new instructions, and to review this from time to time. To avoid the need to request detailed identity information from vendors and intending purchasers, we may use approved external services which review publicly available information on companies and individuals. However, should those checks, for any reason, fail adequately to confirm identity, we may write to you to ask for identification evidence. If you do not provide satisfactory evidence or information within a reasonable time, we may have to stop acting for you and we would ask for your co-operation in order that there will be no delay in agreeing a sale. Any purchaser who has a provisional offer accepted via this company will be liable to pay an administration fee of £25 (incl VAT) for each person connected with the transaction to cover these checks. If we are instructed by a third party selling agent they may carry out their own AML checks and any prospective purchaser will be required to pay any additional costs involved – please speak to the office for confirmation.

REFERRAL FEES: We may refer you to recommended providers of ancillary services such as Conveyancing, Financial Services and Surveying. We may receive a commission payment fee or other benefit (known as a referral fee) for recommending their services. You are not under any obligation to use the services of the recommended provider.
