PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Smart Millerson Estate Agents are delighted to present this beautifully maintained and immaculately presented two-bedroom terraced home to the market. Occupying a desirable position within one of the area's most popular residential developments, the property enjoys the added benefit of being tucked away towards the rear of the estate, creating a peaceful setting with minimal passing traffic and a wonderful sense of privacy.

Offering stylish, well-proportioned accommodation throughout, this fantastic home is perfectly suited to a variety of purchasers. Whether you are a first-time buyer looking to take your first exciting step onto the property ladder, a downsizer seeking a low-maintenance home, or an investor searching for a strong addition to an expanding portfolio, this property is certain to impress.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright and inviting entrance hallway which immediately sets the tone for the rest of the home. A door leads through to the generous lounge, a comfortable and versatile living space filled with natural light, providing the perfect environment for relaxing with family and friends. To the rear of the property, the well-appointed kitchen/diner offers an excellent range of wall and base units, ample worktop space, and room for dining, making it an ideal hub for both everyday living and entertaining. The ground floor accommodation is further enhanced by a convenient cloakroom/W.C.

Ascending to the first floor, the property continues to impress with two spacious double bedrooms, both offering comfortable accommodation and flexibility for a range of lifestyles, whether utilised as bedrooms, a home office, or guest accommodation. Completing the first-floor layout is a modern family bathroom, thoughtfully designed to serve the needs of a busy household.

Externally, the property enjoys a fully enclosed rear garden which provides a safe and private outdoor space to enjoy throughout the year. Whether hosting summer gatherings, dining al fresco, gardening, or simply unwinding in the sunshine, this attractive garden offers the perfect extension of the living accommodation.

Further enhancing the appeal of this superb home is the provision of off-road parking for one vehicle, together with the added advantage of a garage located just a short walk from the property and visible from the front door, providing valuable additional storage or secure parking.

The property is connected to mains water, electricity, gas, and drainage and falls within Council Tax Band B.

LOCATION

The property is located within walking distance of St Austell town centre which offers a wide range of shopping, coffee shops, restaurants and local leisure centre. It is situated within the catchment area of the local primary school of Mount Charles and secondary schools of Penrice and Poltair Academies. St Austell has a mainline railway station providing direct access to London Paddington and Penzance. The picturesque harbour at Charlestown is only a short drive and has been used as the setting for numerous period dramas and films including The Eagle Has Landed, Mansfield Park and Poldark, and remains popular due to the fabulous setting and quality dining. The area is also home to the breathtaking Lost Gardens of Heligan and of course the world famous Eden Project.

Title register restrictions (CL302191):

- The property is subject to restrictive covenants (legal promises not to do certain things) set out in a Transfer document from October 2013.

- There is a formal restriction on the title which means the property cannot be sold or transferred unless a conveyancer (a property lawyer) confirms that specific rules in the 2013 Transfer have been followed.

- A company (English Clays Loversing Pochin and Company Limited) has the right to enter parts of the land to move sand and stone and to install or repair underground pipes for water and minerals, which limits the owner's exclusive use of those areas.

- Utility companies have the right to keep and maintain telephone and electricity wires, poles, and equipment on or under the land.

- There are legal rules regarding 'light and air' (which prevent the owner from blocking a neighbour's access to light or airflow) and rules about who is responsible for maintaining boundary structures like fences or walls.

- The people who lease the garages on the ground floor have certain rights over those areas, which the main property owner must respect.

Title register restrictions (CL304134):

- The owner cannot sell or transfer the property without providing a certificate to the Land Registry confirming that specific rules (clause 5.19) in the 2013 Transfer have been followed.

- The owner cannot sell or transfer the property without written consent from the Homes and Communities Agency. This is a standard requirement to ensure their mortgage is settled during the sale.

- There are restrictive covenants (legal promises not to do certain things) in a 2012 document concerning an electricity substation.

- There are restrictive covenants in the 2013 Transfer document. These are common rules designed to prevent activities that might annoy neighbours or negatively affect the appearance of the estate.

Title register restrictions (CL298685):

- The lease contains rules about 'alienation,' which means the owner may need to get permission before selling, sub-letting, or transferring the garage to someone else.

- There is a rule that the property cannot be sold or transferred without written consent from the Homes and Communities Agency. This is a standard procedure linked to the mortgage and will be handled by the solicitors during the sale.

- The 2012 document regarding the nearby substation contains 'restrictive covenants,' which are promises not to do certain things on the land to ensure the substation can operate safely.

Non-coal mining area: yes
