

Rosewarne Road, Gwinear, Hayle

Guide Price £210,000

Council Tax: A

Tenure: Freehold

Rare Renovation Opportunity – Semi-Detached One-Bedroom Home with Generous Gardens & Large Garage/Workshop.

Nestled in the peaceful hamlet of Wall, this charming semi-detached one-bedroom home presents a rare and exciting renovation opportunity in a sought-after semi-rural setting. Backing onto open fields, the property enjoys a lovely sense of space and countryside outlook while remaining conveniently positioned for easy driving access to Hayle, Camborne and Penzance.

The home itself offers a foundation for transformation, with generous gardens providing ample outdoor space and a substantial garage/workshop that adds significant practical value. Subject to the necessary planning consents, the possibilities here are truly endless.

Early viewing is strongly recommended.

