LOCATION

Located in Hartley, a highly popular residential district & with a good variety of local services and amenities found close by in Mannamead & Hartley. The position is convenient for access into the city & close by connection to major routes in other directions.

THE PROPERTY

Nestled in a desirable cul-de-sac of Hartley, Plymouth, this charming 1920s detached residence, originally built for the Dingles family (House of Fraser) presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a family home with potential for personalisation. With four generously sized double bedrooms, this property is ideal for families or those needing extra space.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hall that leads to a galleried landing, adding a touch of elegance to the home. The ground floor boasts two inviting reception rooms, perfect for both relaxation and entertaining. The sitting room and family room provide ample space for gatherings, while a dedicated study offers a quiet area for work or study. The dining room and kitchen are well-positioned for family meals and social occasions, ensuring that the heart of the home is both functional and welcoming.

The property features a family bathroom and two separate WC's, catering to the needs of a busy household. Outside, the level plot offers a sunny garden, ideal for outdoor activities and enjoying the warmer months. The stone-chipped driveway provides convenient off-road parking, complemented by a garage for additional storage or vehicle space.

While the home is in need of some updating, it presents a fantastic canvas for those looking to add their own style and modern touches. With its prime location in Hartley, this property is not to be missed.
