A beautifully presented and comprehensively renovated three-bedroom bay-fronted semi-detached home, ideally positioned on Foster Road in Kempston and occupying an impressive plot of approximately 0.16 of an acre (STS). Offered with no onward chain and ready for immediate occupation, this stylish home combines contemporary interiors with an exceptional amount of outside space.

The property has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout, including new windows, a brand-new combi boiler with a 5-year warranty and a newly fitted family bathroom, creating a turnkey home with a fresh and modern finish.

At the heart of the property is the impressive new kitchen, featuring a central island, some integrated appliances and an open-plan connection to the dining area. Double doors open onto the rear garden, creating a light and sociable space ideal for both entertaining and family living.

The elegant bay-fronted living room occupies the front of the property and features newly fitted carpets, while oak-effect internal doors provide a stylish and consistent finish throughout the home.

The first floor offers two generous double bedrooms and a further single bedroom, complemented by the newly fitted family bathroom.

Outside, the property offers a particularly rare feature - an exceptionally long rear garden extending to approximately 150ft. Providing an abundance of space for entertaining, family life and outdoor enjoyment, the garden forms a significant part of the appeal.

A substantial driveway provides ample off-road parking, with convenient side access to the rear garden, adding further practicality to this impressive property.

Foster Road in Kempston is situated just off Bedford Road, and as such is close to a range of local amenities. Bedford is a short distance away and offers further amenities.
