Neuadd Wen , Llanuwchllyn, Bala, LL23 7TW

Nestled in the charming village of Llanuwchllyn, this substantial Grade II* listed semi-detached house, built in 1907, offers a unique blend of historical elegance and modern living. Spanning an impressive 3,229 square feet, this property boasts six spacious bedrooms, inviting reception rooms and dining room, making it an ideal family home or a splendid retreat for those seeking tranquility in a picturesque setting.

Set within half an acre of beautifully maintained gardens, the property enjoys breath taking open views of the surrounding countryside and majestic mountains, providing a serene backdrop for everyday life. The sweeping driveway adds to the grandeur of this historical residence, welcoming you into a home that is rich in character and original features such as high ceilings, parquet flooring, decorative cornices, grand staircase and fireplaces.

The spacious, modern kitchen is thoughtfully designed with bespoke handmade units which can cater to contemporary living while harmoniously blending with the home's historical charm. The kitchen, utility and wet room were added as part of an extension.

This remarkable property is perfect for those who appreciate the beauty of rural living, combined with the comfort of spacious interiors and the allure of a home steeped in history. The property was built in 1907 for Sir O.M Edwards, who was a significant scholar and educationalist. The house was then divided into two properties post war. A small section of the property is subject to a flying freehold.

With its prime location and generous outdoor space, this semi-detached house is a rare find and presents an exceptional opportunity for discerning buyers.
