Asking price £455,000
Freehold

A classic Victorian terraced house that was fully modernised in 2012 by a professional developer who at the same time modernised the neighbouring terrace. The property is well presented and benefits from an extended rear ground floor providing a kitchen dining/living space with french doors to the garden. In addition a cloakroom has been added to the ground floor and first floor bathroom with a separate shower that serves the two double bedrooms. The property is fully double glazed and has a gas fired central heating system to radiators. The garden is a blank canvass but a good size being enclosed by panelled fencing and backing south west. Parking is on the street and no permits are required given the distance to the town and station. To summarise, lovely popular road, close to The Downs and Golf Club and a short drive to the centre of Guildford but a walk to Merrow village.
