WHAT'S GREAT?

A Stunning Blend of Period Character & Contemporary Luxury Some pictures have been staged with AI

Dating back over 100 years, this exceptional four-bedroom period property has been comprehensively renovated to an exceptionally high standard, seamlessly blending original character with the style, comfort and versatility of a brand-new home. No expense has been spared, with a premium specification and attention to detail throughout.

The impressive ground floor features high ceilings and a superb open-plan lounge and dining area, centred around a characterful log burner. Bi-fold doors open directly onto the south-facing rear garden, creating a wonderful connection between indoor and outdoor living spaces.

Off the dining area is the beautifully appointed contemporary kitchen and utility space, finished to an exacting standard with high-end appliances, generous storage and excellent functionality.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, with two benefiting from stylish en-suite shower rooms. A luxurious family bathroom completes the accommodation, featuring both a bath and separate walk-in shower.

Outside, the property continues to impress. The front provides off-road parking for several vehicles, plus an EV charging point. To the rear is a generous south-facing garden, featuring composite decking and lawned areas, ideal for relaxing and entertaining.

The location is equally impressive. The railway station is just a five-minute walk away, offering excellent commuter connections and access to London in under an hour. The centre of MH is approximately five minutes on foot, providing a fantastic selection of cafés, bars, restaurants and independent retailers.

Combining timeless period charm with outstanding contemporary finishes and a convenient location, this is a truly special home offering the best of both worlds.
