Main Road, Yoxford

Often referred to as "The Garden of Suffolk" the pretty village of Yoxford lies just off the A12 Great Yarmouth to London Road and was in the 19th Century a coaching post on the London turnpike. Today Yoxford is a much sought after and well served typically Suffolk village centring around its fine parish church of St Peters with its grand tower and spire. The village has the old established Horner's grocer, public houses, restaurants, antique shops, doctors surgery and school and is well served by public transport. The nearby railway halt at Darsham lying on the East Suffolk line gives regular services to Ipswich and London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

A former mill dating from the late 19th Century having been extended and converted to create a unique family home set in $\frac{3}{4}$ acre of private gardens (subject to measured survey). A beautiful setting adjoining open countryside with gently sloping lawns and mature trees. The versatile accommodation of great character featuring curved walls and large windows overlooking the garden and countryside. On entering the property a lobby leads to the triple aspect sitting room and entrance hall, second reception/dining room. Kitchen breakfast room with Aga and spacious utility room. To the rear is a ground floor bedroom and bathroom. On the first floor there are two bedrooms with fine views and a bathroom. The property is approached via a right of way past Old Mill House leading to a shingle driveway and parking area, store and brick, pantile potting shed. The gardens lie principally to the South with wide lawn, mature trees and stepped sleeper edge borders.
