Property

Approaching the property by foot off Chediston Street where a front door opens into the cosy sitting room which has an exposed brick fireplace housing a wood burning stove, a door to the rear opens into the kitchen. The kitchen provides a sink in a timber worktop with a cupboard below, a range of shelving and space for a cooker and fridge, and ceramic tiled flooring. There is also a perfect space for a pantry under the stairs. A pine door leads to the stairs which rise from the sitting room to the first floor small landing, where there is a spacious double bedroom overlooking the front gardens. To one wall is a pretty cast-iron fireplace and exposed brick chimney breast. To either side are built-in drawers and wardrobes, The bathroom provides a bath with a shower over, wash hand-basin and w.c. and an electric heated towel rail. This charming end terrace cottage would make a lovely full time home for a couple or one person or an excellent holiday home.

Outside

From Chediston Street there is a pathway for pedestrian access only in the front of the cottages, for the surrounding properties. A residents permit for parking can also be purchased. A small brick paved area with flowers immediately in front of the cottage allows an outdoor space for a garden seat. The cottage also owns a flower bed opposite next to its garden store and there is an additional wood store.

Location

The property is located in Chediston Street which is one of the town's prettiest roads and a stroll to all the town's amenities. Halesworth provides many independent shops, primary school, public houses, restaurants, doctors and vets. It has a thriving centre of arts for the community called 'The Cut' which is used as a theatre, cinema, exhibitions and workshops. There is a train station with services to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich. The heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a 20 minutes drive away.
