IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Tucked within a thoughtfully planned development, this home benefits from access to a series of inviting communal gardens. Landscaped green spaces, playful timber structures and quiet seating areas offer a welcome extension of the living space—perfect for families, professionals or anyone who enjoys the outdoors on their doorstep.

Inside, a bright entrance hall sets the tone with pale wood flooring and crisp finishes. Two built-in storage cupboards provide practical everyday convenience, while stairs rise neatly to the upper floor. To the front, the first bedroom is bathed in natural light from a large window and finished in soft, neutral tones for a restful atmosphere. At the rear, a second well-sized bedroom offers versatility and calm, also with carpet underfoot and a wide window framing the view. The ground floor bathroom is stylishly tiled, with a frosted window and recessed shelving adding subtle, practical detail.

Upstairs, the spacious open-plan kitchen, lounge and dining area stretches across the full width of the property. Pale timber-style flooring flows from the living zone to the dining space, while darker tiling defines the kitchen. Contemporary cabinetry and generous storage contribute to a considered and functional layout. The third bedroom is particularly spacious, complete with a mirrored built-in wardrobe and private ensuite, all decorated in soft, neutral hues. Also on this level is a fourth bedroom—ideal as a nursery, study or guest room—and a second bathroom, which includes a full-length bath and clean-lined, cohesive finishes throughout.

The surrounding area blends green spaces, cultural highlights and a strong sense of community. Just a short walk away, Lloyd Park offers something for everyone, from the beautifully curated William Morris Gallery to a recently rejuvenated playground and a lively weekend food market. For a deeper breath of nature, the expansive Walthamstow Wetlands provides peaceful walking routes and wildlife spotting. Local pubs like The Dog & Duck and The Bell offer welcoming spots to unwind, while The Italian Baker is perfect for fresh breads and pastries. The Waltham Forest Feel Good Centre caters to fitness and leisure needs, and the newly opened Soho Theatre brings a fresh cultural energy. Families are well catered for, with a wide range of schools nearby including Roger Ascham.

WHAT ELSE?

There are plenty of bus routes connecting you to nearby neighbourhoods such as Leyton, Hackney and Tottenham, as well as local stations. Walthamstow Central and Blackhorse Road are both within easy reach, offering swift access to the Victoria Line and Overground services, making journeys into central London and beyond fast and convenient.

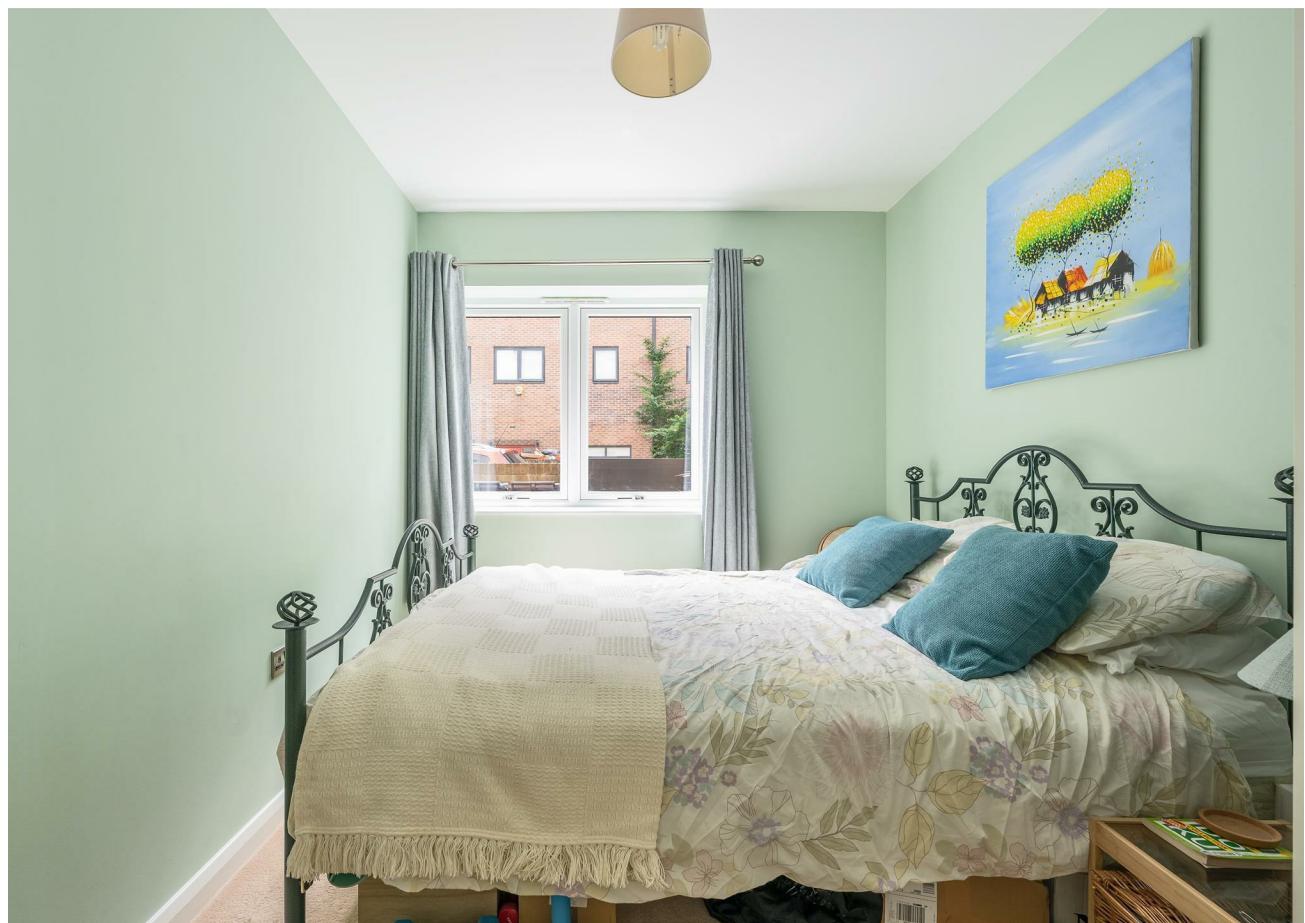

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"For me it's the sheer variety you find in each pocket of Walthamstow that makes working and socialising here so enjoyable. Whether it's having a coffee from Perky Blenders, going for a Sunday morning walk in Epping Forest, dropping into one of the local breweries in Blackhorse Road, or catching up with friends in Lloyd Park, the growth and positive changes within E17 have been incredible in recent years."
