SITUATION (CHULMLEIGH)

Southcott House is conveniently situated on the A377 in Eggesford, a small village in the heart of the Taw Valley approximately 500 metres from the train station on the edge of Flashdown Forest and near the Fox & Hounds Hotel. The small villages of Wembworthy and Chawleigh to the east and west both offer a Church, a Village Hall and good local pubs, whilst the local town of Chulmleigh, approximately 3 miles by car, offer a wider range of facilities, being the centre for an active and friendly community and offers a good range of local shops including a bakery, dairy, newsagent, florists, hairdressers etc, along with the excellent Chulmleigh Academy offering schooling from the ages of 3 to 16 years of age, health centre, dental surgery, Post Office, churches, library, two public houses and a community run Sports Centre and a short 18 hole golf course. The market town of South Molton to the north and Crediton to the south both offer a more comprehensive range of facilities and the local railway station at Eggesford, 2 miles, provides a rail link between Exeter and Barnstaple. Road link is via the A377 or the North Devon Link Road, which can easily be accessed at South Molton. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre, and the Cathedral and University city of Exeter both offer the wide range of shopping, amenities and facilities one would expect from the county's principal town and city. Tiverton, the M5 motorway at Junction 27 and Tiverton Parkway station, which provides a fast Intercity rail link to London Paddington, are both approximately forty-five minutes drive. There is also an international airport at Exeter.

There are excellent recreational and sporting facilities in the area with a range of Leisure Centres at South Molton, Tiverton, Crediton and Barnstaple, near-by tennis courts and clubs, local rugby, football and cricket clubs, fishing in the rivers Taw and Torridge, further near-by golf courses at Libbaton, High Bullen and Down St Mary, excellent walking and riding in all directions, racecourses at Haldon Exeter and Newton Abbot, and sailing and watersports on North Devons scenic and rugged coastline, being approximately three-quarters of an hours drive.

DESCRIPTION

Southcott House is a sizeable detached house conveniently situated on the A377 Exeter to Barnstaple main road near Eggesford Railway station adjacent to the Tarka railway line. The house dates back to the Victorian times and is of traditional red brick construction with cream brick quoins and detailing under a tiled roof with a more recent single storey extension to the rear, also under a tiled roof encompassing the Kitchen and Rear Hall/Utility Room, all with traditional painted wooden windows throughout. Internally the spacious accommodation is arranged over two two floors and briefly comprises an Entrance Hall, a Sitting Room, a Dining Room, a Kitchen/Breakfast Room, and a Rear Hall/Utility Room with separate Cloakroom whilst on the first floor there are four double bedrooms and two bathrooms, allowing lovely views across the Taw Valley to Eggesford Church at the front. Internally the house benefits from all the character and charm one would expect from a property of this style and period including the original panel doors, the original staircase, and a traditional fireplace in the Sitting Room, it is also reasonably well presented throughout but does require some redecoration and new floor coverings in places. Southcott House has also been fitted with an air source heat pump and solar panels, and benefits from a wood burner in the Sitting Room and an open grate in the Dining Room. Outside there are areas of garden on both sides of the house, which are laid to lawn with various trees and shrubs and a wooden fence to the front and side, whilst at the top of the garden there is a large shed providing useful storage space and a smaller shed currently used as a log store. On the opposite side of the road and adjacent to the cottages there is a garage that would fit a small car.
