Location

Wells is the smallest city in England and offers a vibrant high street with a variety of independent shops and restaurants as well as a twice weekly market and a choice of supermarkets including Waitrose. Amenities include a leisure centre, independent cinema and a theatre. Bristol and Bath lie c.22 miles to the north and north-east respectively with mainline train stations to London at Castle Cary (c.11 miles) as well as Bristol and Bath. Bristol International Airport is c.15 miles to the north-west. Of particular note is the variety of well-regarded schools in both the state and private sectors in Wells and the surrounding area. The property is within easy walking distance of Wells Blue School (secondary) and Stoberry Park School (primary) as well as Wells Cathedral School.

Insight

A substantial property with over 2400 sqft of accommodation having been extended by the present owners. Lovely views of the Mendips and also towards Glastonbury Tor. An ideal family home with a rear garden approaching 200ft in length.

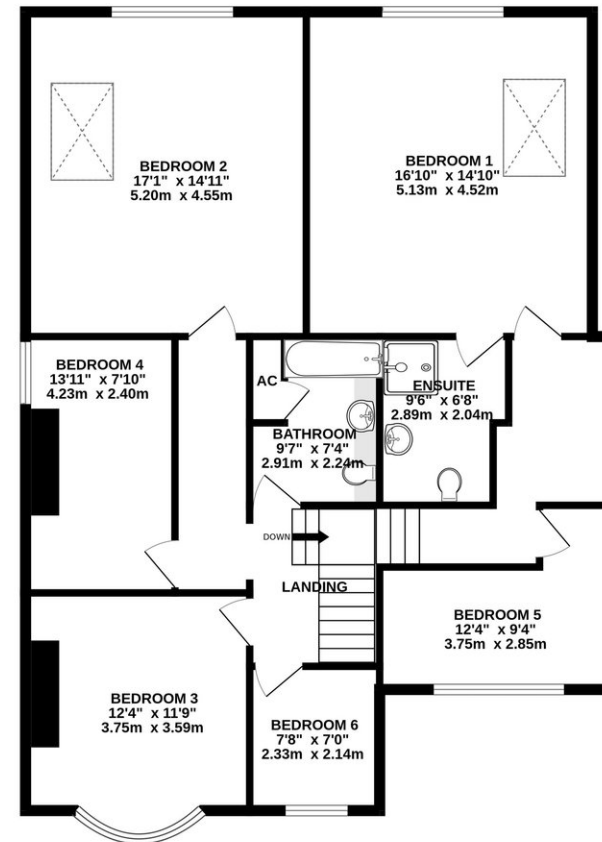

- Generous kitchen, dining, snug area being open plan and giving a real sense of space. Two sets of French doors giving access to the rear garden.
- Separate sitting room to the front with bay window and electric fire with attractive built in surround.
- Bedrooms one and two are vast doubles with vaulted ceilings at a height of over 4 meters (13ft). They both have Velux windows allowing light to flood in and have southerly views over the rear garden.
- Bedroom one also has an ensuite shower room and a dressing area.
- There are four further bedrooms, two of which could take a double bed while the other two are singles.
- Scope for a new owner to put their own stamp on a property which has already been extended.
- Extensive rear garden with two sheds and a greenhouse. Although now quite overgrown, the outside space offers vast potential for a keen gardener to create something special.
