Just wow. This immaculate and very rare two-bedroom flat set within a former schoolhouse conversion in the sought-after Brompton area of Medway. This unique property is full of character and history, with a spacious open-plan living area that showcases beautiful wall murals, stunning arched feature windows and impressive vaulted ceilings, creating huge ceiling space and a striking focal point to the home.

The flat offers great size bedrooms, a family bathroom and one well-defined kitchen area that flows naturally from the main reception space, making the layout practical for both everyday living and entertaining. An allocated parking space provides valuable convenience in this popular location. The property has an EPC rating of C and is in Council Tax Band C.

Situated in Conway Mews, the flat is well placed for local amenities in Brompton and Gillingham, including shops, cafés and everyday services. The Historic Dockyard Chatham, Fort Amherst and Chatham Maritime Marina are all nearby, offering heritage attractions, waterfront walks and leisure facilities.

Gillingham and Chatham train stations are both accessible, providing regular services to London terminals and key Kent destinations, with typical journey times to central London of around 45–55 minutes, making this an appealing option for commuters. Local bus routes further enhance connectivity across the Medway towns.
