Jodie says:

“Set on the second floor of the popular West Gate development, this spacious two double bedroom apartment is in a really convenient spot, just a short walk from Derby city centre.

What stands out straight away is how bright and spacious the apartment feels. The living/dining room is a really good size with plenty of room to relax or entertain, and the Juliet balcony lets lots of natural light pour in, making the whole space feel open and airy.

The kitchen is another lovely bright room thanks to its own Juliet balcony. There's loads of cupboard space, good worktop space, and room for under-counter appliances, so it feels practical as well as welcoming.

Both bedrooms are comfortable doubles, and the main bedroom has its own ensuite which is always a great extra to have. There's also a separate main bathroom.

Outside, there's some communal outdoor space to enjoy during the warmer months, and the gated parking adds that extra bit of convenience and security.

Overall, it's a really well-kept apartment that feels spacious, light, and easy to live in, in a great location for enjoying everything the city centre has to offer.”
