35 Old Station Gardens, Henstridge BA8 0PU

WITH 16 SOLAR PANELS! '35 Old Station Gardens' is a beautifully finished, modern, detached house (1699 square feet) situated in a favourable residential cul-de-sac address on the rural outskirts of this popular village. There is a simply stunning, landscaped, level rear garden enjoying a westerly aspect. There is off road driveway parking at the front for two to three cars leading to a double integral garage / workshop. It is a short walk to the pretty village centre and excellent amenities plus a short drive to the boutique high street and town centre of Sherborne with a mainline railway station to London Waterloo (in just over 2 hours directly). There are countryside walks from very nearby the front door – ideal as you do not have to put the dogs or the children in the car! The house benefits from 16 solar panels, an inverter and two batteries (available by separate negotiation), plus liquid propane gas fired radiator central heating and uPVC double glazing. The well-arranged accommodation is arranged over two floors and enjoys excellent levels of natural light. The accommodation comprises entrance porch, entrance reception hall, sitting room, open-plan kitchen / breakfast room, dining room, utility room and WC / Cloakroom. On the first floor, there is a landing area, master double bedroom with en-suite shower room, three generous further bedrooms and a family bathroom. It is also a short walk to the pretty village centre. The village of Henstridge has a church, two public houses and a primary school at its centre and additional local services found nearby at Stalbridge where there is the popular Dikes independent supermarket and a range of local shops. It is a short drive to Sherborne town with its coveted boutique high street and bustling out and about culture, markets, cafes, Waitrose store, restaurants, world famous private schools, breath-taking abbey building and mainline railway station making London Waterloo in just over two hours.
