As you approach the house, you'll be greeted by a well-maintained front garden, a traditional slate stone entrance providing a warm welcome. Step inside to discover a spacious and inviting living area with dual aspect windows and gas central heating that ensure comfort throughout as well as offering a log burner with solid oak mantle piece and slate hearth, perfect for the cooler winter evenings.

The adjoining kitchen provides a functional space, with ample wall and base units, together with a useful breakfast bar. There is also a built in electric oven and hob and plumbing for a washing machine. Understairs store and access to both the front and rear gardens.

Ascending to the first floor where you will find the property's three bedrooms. Bedroom 1 offers a sizable space with a large window facing onto the street, features built-in wardrobes providing plenty of storage space whilst the additional bedrooms are perfect for children, guests or a home office. The gas Worcester boiler is housed in bedroom 3.

The well-appointed family bathroom is complete with contemporary fixtures and fittings, ensuring a touch of luxury in your daily routine.

Step outside to the rear garden from the kitchen, offering a paved patio area, ideal for the summer barbeque and guest entertaining as well as a grassed garden area for the children to play. The garden is easy to maintain, offering a perfect balance of lawn and patio areas.

For added convenience, there is off-street parking in the front of the property and at the rear, there is additional off-street parking for your guests.

Located just a stone's throw from the heart of Windermere, you will have easy access to local amenities, shops, and restaurants. The surrounding natural beauty of the Lake District provides endless opportunities for outdoor adventures and exploration. Queens Park Recreational ground ("The Rec") is just across the road with place for kids to explore!
