THE PROPERTY

42 Barnes Meadow is a very attractive and spacious detached, character style, house, enjoying far-reaching views across the Uplyme Valley. It was built in 2003, forming part of the very attractive Barnes Meadow development and offered on the open market for the first time.

The house was finished to an excellent specification and features include gas-fired central heating, small paned timber sealed unit windows, security alarm system, well equipped kitchen with comprehensive appliances (electric double oven, gas hob, microwave and dishwasher), attractive bathroom/shower room fittings, open fireplace and built-in wardrobes.

The house has been well maintained and the generous accommodation has been designed to take advantage of the wonderful views.

Briefly, the accommodation extends to:

Upper ground floor – Canopy porch, reception hall (with pull-down ladder to large attic room (fully floored and lined, two Velux windows, power and light), cloakroom, triple aspect living room, dining room, study, kitchen/breakfast room, utility.

Lower ground floor - Hall, with walk-in airing cupboard, principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom, three further bedrooms, shower room.

The property also features attractive and well stocked landscaped gardens.

OUTSIDE

The house stands on a larger than average corner plot.

Brick paved driveway and detached double garage with remote control door.

The front garden is enclosed behind attractive railings and low walls. The main gardens extend both to the rear and both sides with lawns, well stocked flower and shrub beds, specimen trees, palm tree, apple trees, paved terraces and raised timber decking taking advantage of the views. The gardens also feature a former Birmingham lamppost.

SITUATION

The property is well situated on the highly sought after and exclusive Barnes Meadow development in the popular village of Uplyme. The village is only one mile northwest of Lyme Regis and lies in a shallow valley on the Dorset/Devon border. Within easy reach is a small range of everyday amenities including a church, public house, filling station with shop and post office as well as a tennis club and cricket pitch. There is a lovely walk along the River Lim to the centre of Lyme Regis. Woodroffe Secondary School and Mrs Ethelston's CofE Primary Academy are both conveniently located within some 5-10 minutes' walk. Lyme Regis is a well known and picturesque seaside town on the beautiful Dorset/Devon coast which incorporates the harbour and adjoining lovely beaches. There is a good range of shopping and other facilities plus an excellent golf course. There is a mainline railway station at nearby Axminster with services to London Waterloo and the West Country. The market town of Bridport is only about twelve miles to the east. Much of the area is designated as one of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) and Lyme Regis is part of the beautiful World Heritage Site, Jurassic Coast.
