Percy Ruse Close, Great Cornard

Guide Price £550,000 - £575,000

Oakheart are delighted to present this beautifully renovated and thoughtfully improved four-bedroom detached family home, occupying a desirable corner plot in the ever-popular village of Great Cornard, just moments from Sudbury.

The current owners have significantly enhanced the property to create a stylish and highly functional living space, perfectly suited to modern family life. At the heart of the home is the impressive open-plan kitchen/living room, now extending from front to back, offering a bright and sociable space ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. This has been complemented by the addition of a practical utility room, cleverly designed to keep the main living areas clutter-free.

The ground floor flows effortlessly, with a generously sized lounge enjoying a dual aspect and direct access to the garden, creating a light-filled and welcoming environment, while a cloakroom completes the accommodation.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a beautifully upgraded en-suite, while the second bedroom also enjoys its own en-suite facilities, ideal for guests or older children. The standout family bathroom has been stylishly refitted to a high standard, offering a luxurious space to unwind.

Externally, the corner plot provides a sense of space and privacy, with ample off-road parking and a double garage. The rear garden is well maintained and designed for both relaxation and entertaining, with a patio area and lawn bordered by mature planting.

Offered for immediate sale, this exceptional home combines quality, space and convenience in a sought-after location, making it an ideal choice for families looking to move straight in and enjoy.
