A little more information

The land is a short distance out of the village of Lamlash on the road to Whiting Bay which is locally know as The Heights.

The proposed new build has planning approval for its own new road access and in on a designated 5 acre site within the 20 acres.

The Isle of Arran is a place where you can find a little bit of everything you could ever want from a Scottish island; an ever-changing coastline, dramatic mountain peaks, sheltered beaches, verdant forests, great cultural festivals and a wealth of tasty local produce. Lamlash and Whiting Bay are wonderfully vibrant villages.

Arran High School is in Lamlash which also has a primary school with early years classes. It is home to the cottage hospital, medical centre as well as police, fire and coastguard stations and a selection of restaurants, bars, hotels and shops including a co-op with post office in store.

Lamlash is approximately 4 miles from the ferry terminal at Brodick.

Whiting Bay is a bustling and friendly community with a large village hall, local pub, restaurants, excellent shops, an 18 hole golf course and bowling green amongst many other amenities - it has a beautiful sandy beach and has easy access to the many forestry and country walks nearby at the picturesque Glenashdale and Fairy Glen.
