This beautifully maintained terraced house provides comfortable accommodation throughout, making it ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. The property features a lounge fitted with a feature fireplace, with an opening into the dining room, creating a sociable living space that flows into a modern fitted kitchen. A lean-to at the rear provides additional versatile space and access to the garden, whilst a convenient WC completes the ground floor. To the first floor, the landing leads to one double bedroom which has a built-in wardrobe and access to a staircase leading to the large, versatile loft, a further double bedroom, and a spacious four-piece bathroom complete with a corner bath and corner shower cubicle. Externally, there is a generous rear garden with plenty of external storage options, including a useful utility room. Further advantages include double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated on Park Street in Southend-on-Sea, the property falls within the catchment area for Barons Court Primary School, Milton Hall Primary School and Nursery, and Southchurch High School. The home is conveniently located close to the city centre, offering a wide range of amenities, alongside the seafront, parks, theatres, bus links, and Westcliff Train Station, making it ideal for commuters and those seeking coastal living.
