Welcome to a two-bedroom second-floor flat which has a desirable location in the market town of Haddington, forming part of a C-listed eighteenth-century warehouse that has been converted into sought-after homes. The attractive property is brought to market in move-in condition, enjoying spacious interiors that are neutrally presented and with brand-new carpets. It boasts a dual-aspect reception area, a quality kitchen and four-piece bathroom, and excellent storage to help maintain a tidy home. It also has the benefit of allocated parking. Altogether, it is an ideal residence for a wide variety of buyers, including commuters, first-time purchasers, couples, and small families alike.

Accessed via a secure telephone-entry system, the flat's front door opens into a hall with a convenient cloak cupboard. The neutral styling ensures an inviting introduction, flowing through to the spacious living/dining room. Here, plush carpeting creates a comfortable environment, while dual-aspect windows capture lots of natural light elevating an airy ambience. It is a lovely space that affords various layouts of furniture. Next door, the kitchen has a galley-style arrangement, coming well-appointed with timber-toned cabinetry and stone-style worktops.

Haddington, East Lothian

The Royal Burgh of Haddington is a lovely historic market town with wide streets, period buildings, and an attractive town centre situated in the picturesque county of East Lothian. It offers a wealth of amenities on its vibrant High Street and state-of-the-art facilities. There is a good selection of shops, coffee houses, cafés, eateries, restaurants and pubs, boutique shops, art galleries, hardware shops, charity shops, and bookshops, as well as large supermarkets. With its history deeply rooted in agriculture, the town retains a thriving market spirit. It hosts a monthly farmers' market, where locals and visitors alike can purchase local produce and soak up the friendly atmosphere of the picturesque county town. East Lothian's state-of-the-art library and museum, the John Gray Centre, is also on the High Street and offers interesting exhibitions throughout the year. For the sports and outdoor enthusiast, the town has its own golf course and the fantastic Aubigny Sport Centre, which is home to two swimming pools, a gym, and a range of fitness classes. For more leisurely pursuits, the banks of the River Tyne and the surrounding open countryside provide tranquil strolls and excellent bike ride opportunities. Haddington offers a range of state and independent schools for early years, primary, and secondary education. Situated close to the A1, the town is very well connected to Edinburgh, Berwick, and further afield, with regular buses going to and from the capital.
