Smart, Stylish & Well-Connected

This end of chain flat is offered for sale in Westbury and is presented in good condition, appealing to both first-time buyers and investors.

The property provides an open-plan kitchen with dining space, built-in pantries and good natural light, leading to a separate reception room.

There are two double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom with bath, overhead shower, toilet and heated towel rail. The flat benefits from electric heating and parking, with an EPC rating of C and Council Tax Band B.

Located in Westbury, the property is well placed for local amenities, including nearby schools and parks. Westbury's town centre offers a range of shops, cafes and everyday services, while local green spaces provide opportunities for walking and leisure.

Public transport links are a key feature of the area. Westbury railway station offers regular services to Bath, Bristol, Salisbury and London Paddington. Typical journey times are around 25-30 minutes to Bath, 45-50 minutes to Bristol Temple Meads and approximately 1 hour 20 minutes to London Paddington, making the flat a practical option for commuters.

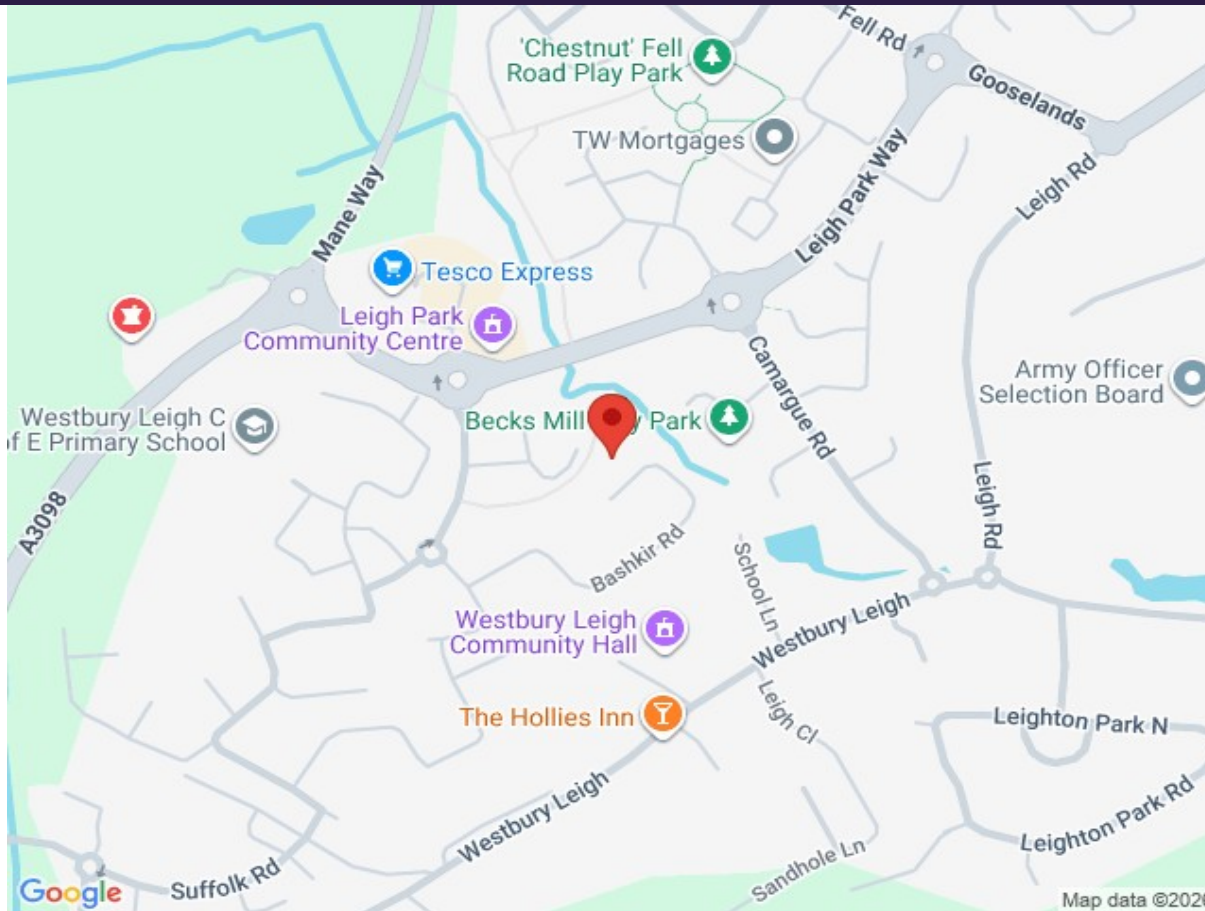

With its two double bedrooms, open-plan living and convenient location for transport, schools and parks, this flat represents a practical home or investment opportunity in Westbury.
