DESCRIPTION

The property occupies a "tucked away" position close to The Wharf within the historic heart of the lakeland town of Ellesmere, which boasts a respectable range of day-to-day amenities, including schools, supermarket, medical facilities, restaurants, public houses, and a range of independent shops.

Ellesmere is conveniently situated for access to the larger towns of Oswestry and Whitchurch which, between them, offer a more comprehensive array of facilities, with the bustling county centre of Shrewsbury situated some 30 minutes to the south by car.

The property provides generously proportioned living accommodation situated across three comfortably sized floors, these extending to in excess of 800 sq ft and retaining a number of period characteristics. The living accommodation is externally complemented by a compact gravelled area and parking for one vehicle.
