Guide Price £740,000

A much improved 2800 sqft detached barn conversion enjoying a tucked away setting at the end of a private drive yet within the heart of the thriving village of Thurston.

This exceptional home offers beautifully arranged and versatile accommodation, where an abundance of character features—including exposed wall and ceiling timbers, fireplaces and oak flooring—blend effortlessly with contemporary finishes. The overall feel is one of space, light and flexibility, ideally suited to both family living and entertaining.

The principal reception space is the impressive drawing/dining room, where a striking expanse of glazing spans one elevation, flooding the room with natural light and providing uninterrupted views across the gardens. A large Inglenook style fireplace with inset stove forms a natural focal point, complemented by exposed timbers and an open connection through to the dining area, creating a sociable and cohesive living environment.

The kitchen/breakfast room sits at the heart of the home and has been thoughtfully fitted with an extensive range of modern units and integrated appliances, whilst retaining the charm of exposed beams. From here, the accommodation flows naturally into a substantial family room, offering further flexibility for modern lifestyles.

A separate sitting room provides a more intimate retreat, complete with a log burning stove and access onto the terrace via wide sliding glazed doors. In addition, there is a study—ideal for home working or adaptable as a snug or occasional bedroom—together with a welcoming entrance hall featuring oak flooring and traditional Suffolk latch doors with door to a cloakroom.

To the first floor, an impressive galleried landing enhances the sense of space and overlooks the hall below. Four well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged off this level, each retaining character through exposed timbers and pleasant outlooks over the gardens. The principal bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and a well-appointed en suite, whilst the remaining bedrooms are served by a stylish family bathroom comprising both a bath and separate shower completing the accommodation.

Outside

Sweeping driveway (also serving the adjacent properties) leads to the front and side of the barn, providing an area of vehicle parking and turning space and access to a substantial store/workshop. The gardens are a particular highlight, thoughtfully arranged to create distinct areas for entertaining and relaxation. A large terrace situated to the rear is complemented by raised beds and a covered seating area, provides an ideal setting for alfresco dining. To the front of the barn is a sweeping lawn providing a good degree of privacy whilst bordered by established trees, including silver birch, and mature hedging.

Location

The barn enjoys a tucked away private setting in the heart of the village, situated within a short walk of all the excellent local facilities. Thurston is a popular and well served village with amenities including a well regarded community sixth form college, shop, post office, garage, station and two public houses. The village is situated within 5 miles of the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds and provides excellent access to the A14 dual carriageway, linking to Cambridge and London via the M11 Motorway. The nearby market town of Stowmarket has a main line rail link to London Liverpool Street station.
