Coed Celyn is a spacious house with six bedrooms in a great location on Deiniol road. This large house has 6 double bedrooms all with their own en-suite. To the back of the property is a large, modern kitchen fitted with an oven, hobs, fridge and freezer, table and chairs. Leading off the kitchen, down the stairs, you will find a cosy living room furnished with sofas' and a TV. A second living room can also be found upstairs on the first floor- meaning more than enough space for everyone to relax. This property has one of the best locations as it is only metres away from Bangor train station and across the road from some of the University buildings. Also close by you will find a good selection of shops, cafes, bars and supermarkets, however if you do have a car with you, there is private parking for up the three cars at Coed Celyn.
