Reen Cross Road, Goonhavern, Truro, TR4 9JP

A secluded, newly built detached house set on the edge of a thriving, well served village close to the north coast, this architect designed contemporary home unfolds as a light filled and generously proportioned space, blending modern family living with a level, low maintenance garden, ample parking and a detached garage, all arranged to offer an easy, refined lifestyle in a tucked away setting.

The Location

Budnen House enjoys a superb setting, just a short and level walk from the heart of Goonhavern. The village offers an appealing blend of convenience and community, with a well stocked local store and post office, a garden centre and several nearby campsites that contribute to a friendly, lively atmosphere. The highly regarded New Inn — a popular pub known for good food and a welcoming feel — is also within easy walking distance of the house.

Perranporth's breathtaking, three mile sandy beach is just over two miles away, making days out surfing, swimming or simply relaxing by the sea wonderfully accessible. The central position also places Newquay and Truro within a short drive, providing excellent shopping, restaurants, schools and transport links. Cornwall Airport Newquay, near Mawgan Porth, offers domestic and international flights, making the location practical for those needing quick connections.

The wider area is one of Cornwall's most desirable coastal belts, with the renowned north coast destinations of St Agnes, Crantock, Newquay, Mawgan Porth and Padstow all within easy reach. Truro, just seven miles away, provides a vibrant cultural scene, the cathedral, and mainline rail services, while the surrounding countryside offers miles of footpaths and bridleways for walking, running and cycling.
