Description

A spacious three-bedroom end-of-terrace family home offering exceptional potential for extension and improvement (subject to the usual planning permissions). Occupying a generous plot with valuable side space, this well-proportioned property features three genuine double bedrooms, ample living accommodation and a sizeable rear garden. Presented in average condition throughout, the home provides an exciting opportunity for buyers to modernise and create a substantial family residence tailored to their own tastes and requirements. With scope to extend, reconfigure and add value, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a property with significant future potential.

Situation

The property is conveniently situated within easy reach of a range of local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, schools and recreational facilities. Excellent transport connections provide straightforward access to surrounding areas, with nearby road links and public transport services making commuting simple. The area continues to prove popular with families and professionals alike, offering a practical balance of everyday convenience and community living. Combined with the property's generous proportions and future potential, this represents an outstanding opportunity to acquire a home in a well-established residential setting.
