Ref: MK0967. A single storey barn conversion situated in a small enclave of just five properties, in a rural location between Carnhell Green and Barripper. The property has private parking for two cars to the rear and mature, well stocked rear gardens. To the front there is a large communal, lawned garden area and communal parking area for several vehicles. The property has been extended to the rear, providing entrance hall, two bedrooms, shower room, lounge, kitchen and dining room. There is double glazing throughout and electric heating. The property was sympathetically converted some years and provides a character home with modern utilities.

The semi rural location between the two villages offers a countryside feel but with the benefit of being a short drive from Camborne, Hayle and the stunning North Coast beaches at Godrevy, Hayle and Portreath.
