Nestled within the picturesque rural hamlet of Ham Green, Cruise Hill Cottage is a charming Grade II Listed detached period home amazing far reaching views offering an abundance of character, generous living accommodation extending to approximately 2,660 sq. ft., and a wealth of versatile outbuildings. Believed to date back to the 16th century, the property retains many original features and is recognised for its historic timber-framed construction and architectural significance.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises a welcoming reception hall, a spacious dual-aspect living room with feature fireplace, an elegant dining room, a well-proportioned kitchen/breakfast room with adjoining pantry and storage, together with a ground floor cloakroom/WC.

To the first floor are three generous double bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant views over the surrounding countryside, together with a family bathroom and useful landing storage.

Externally, the property truly excels, benefiting from substantial detached outbuildings including a large party barn, separate garden shed/workshop and an additional detached store building, offering outstanding potential for hobbies, entertaining, storage or ancillary use (subject to any necessary consents). The mature grounds provide a delightful rural setting with ample parking and space to enjoy the surrounding landscape.

Occupying a sought-after semi-rural location whilst remaining conveniently placed for Redditch, Alcester and excellent road links, Cruise Hill Cottage presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully preserved period home combining historic charm with versatile modern family living.
