

Hurst Place
Rainham, Kent

£500,000

This link-detached home has been thoughtfully renovated and enhanced over time, creating a spacious and incredibly versatile living environment suited to modern family life. The garage conversion and rear extension have introduced two additional ground-floor rooms, offering the flexibility to tailor the space to your lifestyle—whether that’s a comfortable area for multi-generational living, a quiet and productive home office, a playroom filled with activity, or even a snug or hobby space to unwind in.

With the potential for up to six bedrooms, the home easily adapts as your needs evolve, making it ideal for growing families or those seeking extra space without compromise. The layout encourages both togetherness and privacy, with ample room for entertaining guests, hosting family gatherings, or simply enjoying day-to-day living with ease.

Step outside and you’ll find a location that truly enhances your lifestyle. Being just a short stroll from the high street means you can enjoy the convenience of local cafés, shops, and everyday amenities right on your doorstep—perfect for relaxed weekend mornings or last-minute essentials. For commuters, the nearby railway station offers easy connections, helping to balance work and home life effortlessly.

Despite its central position, the property is tucked away in a peaceful setting, allowing you to come home to a sense of calm at the end of a busy day. It’s a rare combination: a home that offers space, flexibility, and comfort, all within a vibrant yet tranquil location—ideal for those looking to enjoy the best of both worlds.
