Property Overview

Occupying one of the former upper levels of the beautifully restored Malt Kiln, this exceptional three-bedroom maisonette forms one of just eight individually designed homes created from a historic Victorian maltings.

Once central to the area's thriving brewing industry, the building has been thoughtfully transformed into an exclusive residential development, preserving the character and craftsmanship of its industrial past through exposed timbers, impressive architectural detailing and generous proportions, while seamlessly embracing the comforts of modern living.

The accommodation is both stylish and versatile, with three well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a spacious master bedroom with the additional benefit of a dressing room or study area.

Outside, the enclosed courtyard provides a private retreat with a paved seating terrace and mature planting. Complemented by two allocated parking spaces and occupying a peaceful semi-rural setting, this remarkable home offers a rare opportunity to own a distinctive piece of Yorkshire's industrial heritage, where timeless character and contemporary convenience combine to create an exceptional place to call home.
