This exceptionally well maintained four bedroomed detached house offers nicely proportioned accommodation and is most favourably located at the start of a small cul-de-sac within this increasingly sought after residential area of the town standing only a few hundred yards from the excellent park and a host of local amenities including shops, reputable schooling and doctors and within walking distance of open countryside.

The property is ideal for a family and benefits from uPVC double glazing, gas fired central heating via a Worcester combination boiler and briefly comprises: reception hall, downstairs cloakroom/WC, study, well equipped kitchen with built in appliances, utility, spacious living/dining room with French doors to the rear garden and patio. First floor landing off which opens four double bedrooms (three of which have built in wardrobes) and a family bathroom.

Outside: long block paved driveway provides ample off road parking and access to the excellent uPVC clad car port, detached garage. Private westerly facing and attractively set out rear garden which has two stone flagged patios, lawn and well stocked beds/borders.
